

Effective 1/1/2010, North Carolina will require a valid email address from licensees. North Carolina is requesting assistance from carriers in communicating this information to appointed insurance producers and adjusters. A $50.00 administrative fee may be assessed to licensees for failure to provide notification of an address or email change.